

Hero Study

Research for Senior English

What is a Hero

In this slide, read the articles below and, using three separate text boxes, give three characteristics of a hero (with a heading and bullet points), explaining where you/the audience have seen these kind of heroes

Article #1

Article #2

Article #3

Choose a Plot

7 Basic Plots

Throughout the year, we will be talking about plots and heroes. Below are the Seven Basic Plots found in Storytelling. Click the 7 Basic Plots above, and it will take you to a website the outside each of them. Create Seven Slides:

Create a Plot Curve (click here to see one) for each plot

Put a picture on the page of a movie (or TV show) that reflects that plot

Write a brief, OCI explanation (using the language of the Plot)

Overcoming the Monster

Rags to Riches

The Quest

Comedy (compare light comedy/dark comedy – might need some research)

Tragedy

Rebirth

Voyage and Return

Choose a Hero

From outside material:

Video Example:

Insert Youtube Clip that demonstrates a hero in action

Plot Curve:

Examine how this plot demonstrates one of the Seven Basic Plots

Analysis:

Define Heroism

Classify Take three different actions from this clip

Interpret: explain how these actions make him the hero you've defined